

2011 ITE MID COLONIAL DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING

FHWA Turner-Fairbank Highway Research Center Tour

April 27, 2011
1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

As part of the ITE District 2 Annual Meeting, we are pleased to offer a technical tour of the Federal Highway Administration's Turner-Fairbank Highway Research Center.

About the Turner-Fairbank Highway Research Center

The Turner-Fairbank Highway Research Center (TFHRC) is a federally owned and operated research facility in McLean, Virginia. TFHRC is the home of the Federal Highway Administration's (FHWA's) Office of Research, Development, and Technology.

TFHRC provides FHWA and the world highway community with the most advanced research and development related to new highway technologies. The research focuses on providing solutions to complex technical problems through the development of more economical, environmentally sensitive designs; more efficient, quality controlled constructions practices; and more durable materials. The end result is a safer, more reliable highway transportation system.
